

The Bulletin for the Youth Project is Here II

(July, August, September 2013)

The E-bulletin about the activities of the Youth Project is Here, presented by the EuroMed Youth Centre of Akdeniz University.

1-30 July 2013

8-13 July 2013 “Youth Researcher Training”: The aim of our training courses is to encourage independent youth researchers, who will work in youth area (thus establishing a new area regarding youth employment) and to research expectations about the solution of the problems of employment, poverty, marginalization all around Turkey, and to give information about youth problems. In this context, an interesting training course with 25 participants, and academics from different cities was arranged. This training course was financed by the Project ‘Youth are Here’.

1-30 August 2013

30 August 2013 “Young Office Free Learning Programme”: This Learning Programme is another step in the “Youth are Here” Project. For this project, 6 trainees took charge of the International Relationship Office. Within the context of project, the expenses of the youths involved were paid.

12-17 August “Youth Studies Training” for NGOs: This Training Course was designed to improve the quality of youth workers in Turkey. Aimed at the work done for the unemployed, and poor and marginal youth groups, it included theoretical and technical training courses for people who will work in youth areas, NGOs, and government establishments. This was a training course for 30 participants made up of NGO workers from different cities in Turkey. The training course was financed by the Project ‘Youth Are Here’.

1-30 September 2013

9-12 September "Youth Office Training": This training course was organized with the aim of combining non-formal education with formal education, and the application of non-formal education in universities and government establishments. The strategy on how to work with young people on peace and youth collaboration, and the provision of knowledge of new opportunities aimed at youth were provided for people who work with young people in universities and public institutions. This included how to build cooperation with university clubs through education, how to support youth work, enabling institutions to gain experience of communication with young people, and to improve cooperation with other institutions on this issue. Within this context, a training course for 23 youth workers from different cities in Turkey was arranged. The training course was financed by the Project 'Youth are Here'.

1 September- 30 October "Be Aware, Youth are Here": We launched a campaign in order to draw attention to the existence of young people, and to improve awareness of work related to young people. For this project, some gifts (cups, wallets, pens, notebooks, rosettes, and informative booklets dealing with online, non-formal education methods) were posted to young people between the ages of 18-30 who had taken photos of historic and tourist sites in Turkey in the context of "Be Aware, Youth are Here", using the creativity of this sentence and sending the results to us.
